This should be in the docket NC-T5-2001. It is referenced in 66 Fed. Reg. 31,575, 31,577 3rd column (June 12, 2001) which says: North Carolina made several additional program changes after EPA granted interim approval on November 15, 1995. The operating permit application processing schedule in Rule 15A NCAC 2Q.0507(f) was deleted and replaced with a new application processing schedule in Rule 15A NCAC 2Q.0525. The new schedule established time frames for the State to complete various aspects of permit issuance, including acknowledging receipt of the application, the completeness check, the technical review, mailing the public notice, and holding a public hearing if one is requested. Rule 15A NCAC 2Q.0525 was initially submitted to EPA on March 23, 1995 and then the State amended it to ensure that final action on permit applications would be taken within 18 months of being deemed complete, as stipulated in 40 CFR 70.7(a)(2). The amended rule was submitted to EPA on July 29, 1998.
